Sermon Title: Revealing some Secrets

Scripture: Ephesians 1:3-5, Deuteronomy 29:29, Ephesians 1:7, Ephesians 1:9-10, Ephesians 1:13-14, Ephesians 1:11

Theme: One of the first missionaries in the Early Church was the Apostle Paul. Paul wrote a letter (from prison) to a new church plant that was living in some pretty hostile context...in an area that wasn't very friendly to the Christian message. Does that sound at all like our modern times?

Questions:

1. Do you ever find scripture to be confusing? Explain.
2. Have you ever allowed your confusion (of scripture) to get in the way of your relationship with God?
3. What does the statement "God knows you, loves you, and chose you" mean to you?
4. How would you explain today's message to someone else?
5. What are your Next Steps?
